

Texting to an Email Address

Nearly every text-capable phone has the ability to send messages to an email address. Here's how to sign up with your device ...

Most Phone Types:

1. Go to Messaging and create a new Text Message.
2. Open up the Send To box to designate the recipient.
3. Some phones have a separate field for Email and Phone Number. If this is the case, enter rsacat@shoutbomb.com in the Email field.
4. If not, look for a box that says 123 on the menu screen. (This means that you're entering a number to designate who you're texting.) Press the relevant button (typically the Shift key or one of the Option buttons) to switch this to ABC.
5. Enter rsacat@shoutbomb.com as the designated address. Send the message SIGNUP to this address.
6. Add this contact info to your Address Book.

BlackBerry:

1. Click on Messages.
2. Press the BlackBerry button and select Compose SMS Text.
3. Select [Use Once]. When it asks "Which Type of Address?" choose Email.
4. Enter rsacat@shoutbomb.com as the email address. Type SIGNUP in the body, send the message.
5. Add rsacat@shoutbomb.com to your Address Book.

Android Phones:

1. Open up Messaging and select Compose New Message.
2. Set rsacat@shoutbomb.com as the recipient.
3. Type SIGNUP as the message text.
4. Save rsacat@shoutbomb.com as a contact.

Apple iPhone on Verizon:

1. Send a text message to rsacat@shoutbomb.com
2. In the body of the message, type SIGNUP.
3. Send the message and save as a contact.

Apple iPhone on AT&T:

1. Send a text message to 121
2. In the body of the message, type rsacat@shoutbomb.com SIGNUP.

Shoutbomb Text Message Alerts for XXXXX Library Cardholders

With the Library's new Shoutbomb text messaging service, you can use your mobile phone to ...

→ Receive text notices about: holds that are available, items that are due soon, overdue items, and fines.

→ Send a text to renew a loan. If the item is eligible for renewal, it will renew. If the item is not eligible for renewal, it will fail. Either result will be reported by text message.

The Library does not charge a fee for this service, but your mobile plan's regular text-messaging rates apply.

What You Need

→ A mobile phone and wireless service that can send text messages to an email address.

→ The barcode number from your Library card (ten digits, Dxxxxxxx), and the PIN for your library account.

Signing Up

To get started, text the message:

SIGNUP

to: rsacat@shoutbomb.com

Then reply to the messages from Shoutbomb, asking for your library card number and PIN.

Once your Shoutbomb registration has been completed, you will automatically get text notices about holds to pick up, items that are due soon, overdue items, and fees. A text will be sent only when activity on your account triggers a message and will usually arrive around 9am.
