

Sunbeam Club
January 13, 2010

The Sunbeam Club met at McDonald's Restaurant for their January meeting. Elaine Kuntz opened the meeting with a story about "The Mason Jar plus two cups of coffee" that Katie Metz gave to her.

19 members answered Roll Call. The December minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer, Lois Coleman, reported a balance of $308.52.

There were three January birthdays—Pauline Miller, Janet Monahan, and Del Anderson. "Happy Birthday" was sung to these members.

Correspondence consisted of the reading of the resignations of four of our members—Katie Metz, Ruth Runyon, June Schahrer, and Lois Coleman.

Bobbie Thomas suggested the name of Lois Morris from Chenoa as a possible new member.

Next month, February, will be the election of new officers. Elaine said she would continue to be President. Carol Hoffman—last year--said that this would be her last year as secretary. Both Karyl Kafer, former vice president; and Lois Coleman, former treasurer, has resigned from the Sunbeam Club.

The meeting was adjourned and turned over to the hostesses—Katie Metz and Ruth Runyon. Jean Jenson was high with 43; Carol Hoffman was second with 41; and Lavonne Huisman was low with 23.

March 9, 2010

There was no February meeting because of weather.

The March meeting was opened by President, Elaine Kuntz. She introduced our newest member, Lois Morris from Chenoa.

Fifteen member answered roll. The minutes were read and approved.

Elva Mae Sutter said the treasurer's balance was $335.01.

We sang Happy Birthday to Tiny Skinner.

Elaine said we were still in need of new officers. Viola Atkins volunteered to be secretary for one year. The new officers are as follows: Elaine Kuntz, President; Ruth Wall, Vice-President; Viola Atkins, Secretary; Elva Mae Sutter, Treasurer.

Viola Atkins moved that we eliminate the 25 cents we gave at each meeting. The original reason for this donation was to replenish the flower fund. The treasury seems to have enough to handle the flowers. Tiny Skinner seconded the motion. It passed.

Viola Atkins also asked about the $25 that each hostess pays. The dues are currently $5 per member. It was moved by Viola that each hostess pay $20 when serving. It was discussed that if this did not cover expenses, it could be changed. . Carol Hoffman seconded the motion It was approved.

Maxine moved that the meeting be adjourned.

Lila Dawson was hostess.

I was late in typing up the minutes; and could not find the names and scores of the Euchre winners. Sorry!!!
